Death of an Old Citizen.

Mr. J. H. L. Moorman, died very suddenly at his home last Monday day of brain fever. Mr. Moorman had been in feeble health for some months, but was able to be about the house and move around, associating with his family and friends.

He got up Monday morning as usual, ate his breakfast, walked out into the garden, came back and remarked to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robt. Moorman, that he was not feeling well and retired to his room. Mrs. Moorman discovered at once that he was not well and immediately called in Dr. Watkins, who gave him some medicine and left. In less than two hours from that time he died. His death, brain fever.

Mr. Moorman was born August 13th, 1830, in Long City, in this county, being in his seventieth year. He was married Nov. 14th, 1849 to Miss Margaret E. Wickliff, who bore him three children, C. W. Moorman and R. E. Moorman of this city and Mrs. John T. Hart, of Zion, Henderson county, Ky., who are all living and were present at the funeral.

Mr. Moorman was an honorable upright, worthy citizen, and has been a resident of this city nearly thirty years. He has a large family connection all over the country.

His funeral was held at the Baptist church at 3 o'clock yesterday, conducted by the Rev. I. N. Timberlake.

Quite a large number of relatives and friends from all over the county and all southern Kentucky.

John Chris was in a very happy state of mind yesterday. He was allowed a pension of $7 a month with back pay of $5 per month from May 1893 to the present. His first draw will amount to something over $500.

PRESENCE OF MIND.

Oscar Holder Saves Himself from Death or Injury.

The Owensboro Messenger of Sunday says: "Oscar Holder, the train agent of the People's Transfer company, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday. In attempting to alight from the 'Texas' train, which was just pulling in at the depot, his feet slipped on the car steps and he fell. He was thrown almost under the front truck, but kept his presence of mind and thereby probably saved his life. With a powerful effort he threw himself back and landed between the two platforms and the track. The train stopped within about twenty feet and Holder was not injured beyond a few bruises.

The accident was witnessed by a number of people who were standing on the platform and they all breathed easier when Holder got up and walked away.

Holder has been running on the road only a short time, his wife being in the city. He has been running on the road only a short time, his wife being in the city.

He is married and lives in this city.
